RESISTANCE RIDE

On Monday, May 11, Virginia student ACP resistance riders will be coming to Nelson!

Ride with us from Sherando Lake, join us on the way, or just meet us at the Acorn Inn for a community potluck to share your story of resistance and celebrate the community power we have built so far.

WHO: Virginia college students, Friends of Nelson, Free Nelson, and YOU!

WHAT: Escort Virginia student ACP resistance riders through Nelson by bicycle and join us for a community potluck to share your story of resistance or just celebrate the community power we have built so far.

WHERE & WHEN: The ride will begin at Sherando Lake at 2:00pm on Monday, May 11th, overnight at the Acorn Inn, and continue to Yogaville on the 12th. Route details can be found at <https://acpresistanceride.wordpress.com/>. The potluck will be held at 5:30pm on May 11th at Acorn Inn, 2256 Adial Road. Please bring instruments and a side to share! Email acpresistance@gmail.com for more details!

WHY: From May 9–19, the Virginia Student Environmental Coalition is cycling across Virginia following the proposed path of the ACP to amplify the voices of Virginia communities and land-owners directly impacted by the ACP and demonstrate a unified student movement against climate change. Learn more and follow their progress on their blog (<https://acpresistanceride.wordpress.com/>) and Facebook page, and consider donating to support their ride!

Come On Down and Welcome the Resistance Riders With Some Nelson Hospitality!

Potluck at the Acorn Inn, Monday, May 11 at 5:30 PM
